Yes. I'll give you a call shortly.

I have not seen the table, and I'm not sure how it was developed because the factors going into awqc-type limits are very much under discussion between EPA, TDEC and DOE, and still in flux.

Subject: Questions about ORR Discharge Limits Provided to Larry

Hi Cathy,

Do you have a moment this morning to talk to me about a document that Carlton sent to Larry with charts of EPA v DOE assumptions? I'm not sure who prepared the document or if I'm able to share it.

Thank you,

Chelsea
